

David Emler, Ph.D., has been a full-time assistant professor at the Institute of International Studies, Faculty of Social Sciences, Charles University since 2009; from 2022, he has been serving as Vice-Dean for the development of the faculty. Since 2024, David has been the director of the Supply Chain Resilience Center (SCRC) – a research consortium between National Chengchi University (NCCU) and Charles University. In his teaching and research, he focuses on contemporary history and politics in France and cultural history in Central Europe. David holds a double degree “cotutelle” Ph.D. in contemporary history and political science from the University Paris Nanterre and Charles University.